

ALYONA'S NECKLACE

Clothing, Uncommon (requires attunement)

This silver chain holds a single, intricately detailed leaf pendant, characteristic of elven jewelry from the Gallant Grasslands. It has been passed down through Elvish families for generations.

The charm hums with a faint, residual magic from the region, which gives the wearer a heightened connection with the Fey.

(Fey Heirloom) If you fail a Wisdom saving throw to resist being charmed or frightened, you may make the roll again and take the result.
