

SPORE CIRCLET

Jewelry, Uncommon (requires attunement)

This circlet is crafted out of a unique leather made from dried mushrooms. It was crafted and enchanted by the Shellsworn, a cult of Tortles who worship Myconids.

Fungal Fervor. You gain +1 to AC while Halo of Spores is active. In addition, expending all temporary hitpoints no longer causes Halo of Spores to prematurely end.

NEVER-ENDING CIGARETTES

Wonderous Item, Uncommon

A curious pack of Camello Golds which never seems to run out of cigarettes.

Smooth Satisfaction. Smoking one of these premium cigarettes out of combat calms the nerves and refreshes the senses. You have +1 to skill checks for 1 minute.

Steady Hand. Endulging in the Camelfolk's signature blend of desert toasted tobacco during combat costs a bonus action and grants +1 to attack rolls.

SURGEON GENERAL'S WARNING. Nicotine is an addictive chemical. Smoking too many of these deluxe cigarettes can lead to cravings and eventual health problems.
